

Quick Facts

Here are a few quick examples of how your gift can help...

$2 per week

Connects at-risk youth with caring adult mentors by training for 10 Big Brothers or Big Sisters.

Keeps a low-income family warm by covering the cost of insulation for two bedrooms in a Habitat for Humanity home

$5 per week

Provides an anti-bullying workshop at a local school.

Gives a woman working to obtain sobriety and her children another day in a halfway house.

$10 per week

Provides basic needs to a family that has been affected by disaster.

Helps match and support a school-based mentor pair for the entire school year.

Helps kids get the right start in life through involvement in scouting.

$20 per week

Enables a low-income, disabled child with social or emotional issues to attend camp for the whole summer.

Supports a family working towards independence in an economic self-sufficiency program.

Provides after-school programs and prevention services to an at-risk youth.

Quick Facts

Here are a few quick examples of how your gift can help...

$2 per week

Connects at-risk youth with caring adult mentors by training for 10 Big Brothers or Big Sisters.

Keeps a low-income family warm by covering the cost of insulation for two bedrooms in a Habitat for Humanity home

$5 per week

Provides an anti-bullying workshop at a local school.

Gives a woman working to obtain sobriety and her children another day in a halfway house.

$10 per week

Provides basic needs to a family that has been affected by disaster.

Helps match and support a school-based mentor pair for the entire school year.

Helps kids get the right start in life through involvement in scouting.

$20 per week

Enables a low-income, disabled child with social or emotional issues to attend camp for the whole summer.

Supports a family working towards independence in an economic self-sufficiency program.

Provides after-school programs and prevention services to an at-risk youth.

Quick Facts

Here are a few quick examples of how your gift can help...

$2 per week

Connects at-risk youth with caring adult mentors by training for 10 Big Brothers or Big Sisters.

Keeps a low-income family warm by covering the cost of insulation for two bedrooms in a Habitat for Humanity home

$5 per week

Provides an anti-bullying workshop at a local school.

Gives a woman working to obtain sobriety and her children another day in a halfway house.

$10 per week

Provides basic needs to a family that has been affected by disaster.

Helps match and support a school-based mentor pair for the entire school year.

Helps kids get the right start in life through involvement in scouting.

$20 per week

Enables a low-income, disabled child with social or emotional issues to attend camp for the whole summer.

Supports a family working towards independence in an economic self-sufficiency program.

Provides after-school programs and prevention services to an at-risk youth.