UW Bucks Funded Partner & Member Agency Agreement

_____ (Agency name) represents and warrants to United Way of Bucks County that the information provided to participate as a Funded Partner and or Member Agency is true and correct.

United Way of Bucks County acknowledges the Organization as a participant as a Funded Partner and/or Member Agency, subject to the Organization's execution and delivery of this Agreement, as well as all other documentation as defined in the Funded Partner & Member Agencies Required Documentation checklist.

The Organization represents and warrants to United Way of Bucks County that the Organization (1) is not subject to a revocation of tax-exempt status or other adverse tax determination from the Internal Revenue Service, (2) is not currently and has not formerly been subject to any investigation or examination by any state or local authority, including but not limited to law enforcement and charity regulators, or any federal authority, including but not limited to the Internal Revenue Service and Federal Trade Commission, and (3) is not aware of any threatened revocation, adverse tax determination, investigation, or examination.

If the Organization becomes the subject of any such revocation, adverse tax determination, investigation, examination, or any written notice thereof, the Organization shall notify United Way of Bucks County within five (5) days of such determination, the initiation of such investigation or examination, or the Organization's receipt of written notice.

Failure to provide any required or requested information may result in termination of this Agreement.
